MEDIA INVITATION

Ministers of Public Administration and Legal Affairs to tour the Legal Affairs Tower.
Friday 14th January 2011
Legal Affairs Tower, London Street, Port of Spain
10:00 a.m.

In its continued efforts toward the improvement of the public service, the Ministry of Public Administration, as the Ministry responsible for government accommodation, has been expeditiously reassigning government employees into better work environments. Better working conditions and proper accommodation for staff leads to an increase efficiency of public services as workers are housed in an environment more conducive for work. The Ministry of Legal Affairs will take up accommodation at the newly constructed Legal Affairs Tower on London Street, a tower that is part of the Government Campus plaza.

This move proves timely, as recently the Ministry has had to close its doors to public due to heavy flooding in the South Quay area. The closure caused many citizens to be turned away from transacting their daily business. The tower, located in the scenic government campus plaza offers more spacious work space and improved office facilities while giving view to the Port of Spain skyline.
